DETAILED ACTION

Applicants' arguments, filed 5/19/03, have been fully considered but they are not deemed to be persuasive. Rejections and/or objections not reiterated from previous office actions are hereby withdrawn. The following rejections and/or objections are either reiterated or newly applied. They constitute the complete set presently being applied to the instant application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. § 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in-

(1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effect under this subsection of a national application published under section 122(b) only if the international application designating the United States was published under Article 21(2)(a) of such treaty in the English language; or

(2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that a patent shall not be deemed filed in the United States for the purposes of this subsection based on the filing of an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a).

Claims 1-3, 7-10, 12, and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e)(2) as being clearly anticipated by Zhao et al.(P/N 5,962,856).

This rejection is reiterated and maintained from the previous office action, mailed 2/14/03. Applicants argue that the imaging array of Zhao et al. is used for radiography and fluoroscopy and thus fits into an X-ray tray without any disclosure or suggestion that the array is formed on a chip adapted to receive a conductive solution including charged biological materials. In response, the medical diagnosis usage for X-ray imaging as described in the reference in columns 1-2, regarding usage of the invention disclosed in the reference, is the imaging of complex biological systems which are well known to contain charged biological materials in conductive solutions. The claim limitations directed to a chip for receiving such a solution of materials lacks any limitation as to specific chip structures for such receiving practice. Thus, a chip in a imaging system is reasonably interpreted as being utilized in the reference for receiving medical patients with the above conductive solutions. Thus, the chip is "for" the claimed receiving and thus still anticipates the above listed instant claims.

CLAIM OBJECTIONS

Claims 4-6, 11, 14, and 17 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

No claim is allowed.

Applicants' amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicants are reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
